IN MEMORIAM

Dear Jeannette Ethel: Another long and lonely year has gone since God took you from me, Aug. 12th, 1949. Regardless of the adage "Time Heals All Things"—my loss is just as great now and I miss your love and consolation even more than when your going ended our 40 years together. The one who could ease my frustration which you so kindly usaged is kind with pity. But you know I never cared for pity even before my heavy handicap; so because of all these, plus my near helplessness, I long for the call to meet you "Beyond the Sunset." The year's blessing for me was our son's safe return from 52 missions over Korea. I often wondered during those months of prayerful waiting if your spirit were aiding my supplications?

J. W. HOPKINS.

Dr. Nansen has succeeded in obtaining guarantees of large sums for the Armenian home from Armenian residents of the United States, provided the league carried out its part of the project.

Geneva now is the seat of about 45 international organizations, and will take on additional activity by reason of the decision to establish headquarters here of the Jewish council on rights of minorities.

WILLIAM BEEBE, 50, EXPLORER, WEDS NOVELIST, AGED 24

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—(A.P.)—William Beebe, 50-year-old scientist, explorer and author, today married Elswythe Thane, 24-year-old novelist, aboard the yacht Warrior at anchor off Oyster Bay.

Elswythe Thane is the pen name of Elswyth Ricker, daughter of Maurice Ricker, formerly of Burlington, Ohio. She has written several novels, one of which has been filmed, and will publish another this autumn.

Those present at the ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Williams, owners of the yacht, Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Sr., Mrs. John H. Russell, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Fairfield Osburn, Col. and Mrs. A. R. Kuser, and Mrs. Herbert Satterlee.

Mr. Williams, who helped to finance several of Beebe's recent expeditions, has placed his yacht at the disposal of the explorer and his wife for an indefinite period. After the ceremony the ship hoisted anchor and steamed southward.

Mr. and Mrs. Beebe, after their return, will reside in New York.

FLORIDA WAR ACE PLANS HOP FROM DALLAS TO CHINA

Pinellas May Not Lose Air Force Unit, Cramer Says

CLEARWATER, Oct. 7. (By Staff Writer) — Pinellas International Airport may not lose the $2,000,000 U. S. Air Force reserve unit, Congressman W. C. Cramer told the county commission today.

Air Force Secretary Douglas has been given new data concerning the unit at the airport, Cramer said.

Pinellas sought the unit, while Hillsborough County avoided it, and Pinellas citizens welcomed the unit, he continued. Douglas did not know this, Cramer added, and promised a complete review of the federal order which deactivated the Pinellas unit in a federal economy move.

County commissioners had anticipated considerable revenue from the unit to be used toward the retirement of the airport's revenue bond debt.

had bestowed on each of them. The class prophecy, which followed, was presented by Miss Susan Hedden and Miss Dorothy Mosely, who were a receptive radio audiece to the prophecies for their class mates, announced by two other prophets, Miss Emily Pourtales and Miss Clarice Ayala. The Prophecies were dated May 22, 1945, and proved enlightening as to the futures of the various members. All brought laughs from both class and audience.

Gifts were presented the members as the closing part of the program. These were brought to the stage in toy wagons by Miss Rena Poore, Miss Nancy Cotter, Miss Jessie Lee Park, and Miss Ida Negin, all of whom were attired for the occasion in children's costumes. The gifts were accompanied by clever verses, flings at the various peculiarities and dispositions of the recipients.

In conclusion, the class and members of the school in the audience sang the school song, The Red and Black.

Members of the class attributed much of their success of their Class Night to Miss Rosalia Gonzalez, who was sponsor for the event, and to Miss Hoyt, who has general oversight of activities of this kind.

JAMES O. GARDNER

SARASOTA, July 9.—(Special)

as a whole, he went on losses have been compounded by recent unfortunate statements that we have not been able to back up by deeds.

"The promise, for instance, that we would pick out the battleground with the forces of Communism and engage in the contest when and where we pleased has not been borne out by the facts of history."

This was apparently a reference to the "massive retaliation" policy enunciated by Dulles some months ago.

Mansfield, in his speech, asserted the Berlin conference was "a 100 per cent failure" and the current consultations at Geneva about the same.

Ferguson Hits Democrats

Senator Ferguson (R., Mich.) answering Democratic attacks on Republican foreign policy, said today the United States is not a "worldwide Mr. Fixit" who can be blamed for every free world "failure."

Ferguson also defended GOP attacks on past Democratic policies. He called them "reasonable" efforts to find out past errors in order to avoid new mistakes.

Ferguson, chairman of the Senate GOP Policy Committee, said Republicans were not questioning the "motives" of Democratic policies "but the methods and, of course, the sorry results."

"In seven short years, such policies contributed to the loss of 600,000,000 persons to Communism, helped lead us inexorably into the Korean war and encouraged Red China to fan the flames of the Indochina conflict," he declared.

Czechoslovak government to establish a homogeneous state," Gen. Smith told the Hungarian political committee.

The United States delegation feels very strongly that it should not be a party to inserting in a peace treaty the principle of forced transfer of populations."

Any such transfers, Gen. Smith said, would be acceptable to the United States only if the receiving country agreed to the transfer and furthermore was able to bear the burden of population additions.

Several times Gen. Smith referred to the "dangerous principle" of forced transfers.

While Smith was speaking, and suggesting that Czechoslovakia and Hungary get together on the transfer, Wladimir Clementia of the Czech delegation and Hungarian Foreign Minister Gyoengyoesi were discussing a possible exchange of minorities.

BURTON COE PASSES AWAY.

While Believing to be Recovering, Rupture of Blood Vessel Caused Sudden Death—Four Secret Orders Escort Remains.

Burton E. Coe, one of Tampa's best-known business men and best-liked citizens, died Sunday morning at 4 o'clock, after an illness of 41 days with typhoid fever. Mr. Coe was believed to be recovering but the rupture of a blood-vessel caused his death in a short while.

The news of his death was received with poignant regret by the people of Tampa generally and especially by those with whom the deceased had business dealings. He leaves a daughter, Miss Rena, who is also very ill with typhoid fever, and a son, Harry.

Mr. Coe was an extensive sidewalk contractor, and had built many miles of his patent sidewalks in this and other cities and towns. He was also largely interested in steamboats, owning the tug Burton E. Coe and other boats.

The funeral occurred yesterday morning, the interment being at Limona. The remains were escorted from the Reed undertaking establishment to the Seaboard station by the Knights Templar, Masons, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias and Elks. A special train took the remains and the funeral party to Limona, where the interment was conducted by the various secret orders attending. This was the first occasion on which the Tampa lodge of Elks has been called upon to do the last offices for one of its members.

The deceased was 40 years old and had resided here 23 years. Miss Rena Coe, his daughter, has been removed to the residence of Gordon Keller, where she is being carefully attended in her serious illness.

Picnic At Wimauma.

The Seaboard Air Line is offering a rate of one fare for the round-trip to Wimauma for the picnic to be held Saturday, May 28. There will be a reunion of Confederate Veterans on the grounds and addresses by prominent speakers.

Takes a Vacation.

C. S. Eliot, the energetic agent of the Independent Line leaves today, with Mrs. Eliot, for Washington and other points to spend several weeks. During Mr. Eliot's absence, the office will be attended to by D. B. High.

Mr. Aultman Here.

S. B. Aultman, a prominent citizen of Arcadia, has removed to Tam- after his property interests and greeting his many friends here.

MOTHER OF SUNSET CLUB LAID TO REST IN FAMILY GROUNDS

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Pratt, 86, called the Mother of the Sunset Club of Tampa, was buried yesterday afternoon in Limona Cemetery, the family burial ground.

Funeral services were held at the Interbay Methodist Church, the Rev. M. E. Thompson officiating. Mrs. Abby L. Hodges, her niece, of Jacksonville, was the only relative to attend the funeral.

Mrs. Pratt, highly educated, having attained notable success in music, came to Tampa several years ago from Massachusetts. She immediately became associated with women's clubs here, and it was through her sponsoring of the Sunset Club's progarms for many years she became known as the mother of that organization. At the time of her death, which was caused from a heart attack, she was living alone on Gadsden Road.

J. L. Reed, mortician, was in charge of the burial.

FUNERAL IS HELD FOR MRS. PRATT

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon for Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Pratt, 86 years old, who died at her home on Gadsden Road Tuesday night. It was erroneously stated in the Tribune yesterday that the funeral was held Wednesday.

The Rev. M. E. Thompson of the Interbay Methodist Church officiated at the services, which were at the residence where Mrs. Pratt lived alone. Alex George, president of the National Sunset Club, delivered a tribute to Mrs. Pratt, who was called the mother of the Sunset Club because of her aid in entertainments of the club. A doxology that Mrs. Pratt is said to have sung every morning for the last forty years was sung at the services. Burial was in Limona cemetery. Mrs. Abby L. Partridge, of Jacksonville, a niece, was the only relative at the funeral.

town entertained Mrs. S. S. Orinsbee; Mrs. P. M. Buckley and Mrs. W. C. Richards, Saturday, at her home on the Manatee river. A delightful auto ride to Sarasota, with a delicious luncheon, served at the Sarasota Yacht and Auto Club, made a most happy day for those who participated.

Mrs. Harry Miller left for Tampa on Monday's boat, to be absent for a week or ten days.

The two launches Mosquito and Nellie, after spending a few hours on a fishing cruise in the Gulf, returned to the dock with 358 pounds of kingfish, 127 pounds of grouper, with many other kinds of fish as well, showing that the fishing season is in full swing at Anna Maria.

CLEARWATER

CLEARWATER, March 26.—Stanford and Pierson Underwood arrived today from Hotchkiss, Conn., to spend the Easter vacation with the parents of the latter. Pierson Underwood is in his senior year of the preparatory course for Yale. Stanford Underwood may remain here, at the home of his uncle, for some time.

T. F. MacCombs, of Barryville, Va., is spending a few weeks in Clearwater, in the interest of his property in this vicinity. Mr. MacCombs has one of the most valuable groves near Clearwater, and spends quite a while here each season.

Mrs. John Fahy and daughter, who have been spending the past winter at the Sea Ora Lodge, left today for Rochester, N. Y., their summer home. Mrs. J. T. Kingsberry will return with them to spend the summer months in the north.

Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Phillips and little Miss Josephine left last night for their home in Evanston, Ill., where Dr. Phillips is one of the leading physicians of the city. Dr. and Mrs. Phillips returned by way of St. Augustine, and will spend today sightseeing in that city.

Mrs. J. H. Drew and family have moved into their recently purchased home on South Fort Harrison avenue, and are quite comfortably situated in this attractive place. John G. Baughman, of Ohio, built this home several years ago, and has since improved the property so that at the present time it is quite valuable..

Attorney John U. Bird is transacting business for several days this week in Brooksville.

John O. Moore received the sad news Sunday of the death of his son, Frank Moore, in Cincinnati, Ohio. Mr. Moore had been severely sick for only a week, and was taken to a hospital, where his case was pronounced a serious form of spinal meningitis. He will be remembered here by many warm friends, for Clearwater was his home for many years during his youth. His sister, Mrs. John Hart, of Tampa, was with her brother when

BAY GIVES UP BODY MRS. EMMA BACON

AUTOPSY ORDERED BY CORONER

Physician Will Examine Body to Determine Evidence of Foul Play

The body of Mrs. Emma V. Bacon, 60, who was drowned some time Thursday night or early Friday morning in the bay, was found early Sunday morning by three youths, Joe and Tony Arduento and Albert Lundin. The boys towed the body to the foot of Howard street and notified the police who advised Justice of the Peace J. E. Williams.

The body was taken to the F. T. Blount Co., undertaking establishment, No. 409 Tyler street, where it was viewed by Judge Williams, who decided that before an inquest would be held, the relatives of Mrs. Bacon be summoned to appear and give testimony. Also that a physician be called upon to examine the body for evidences of foul play. This inquest will be held at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Bacon was last seen Sunday, December 9, by her sister, Mrs. Laura A. Tibbett, 209 Tampa street. Mrs. Tibbett identified some of the effects found in the boat, among them presents she had given her sister. Mrs. Tibbett stated that Mrs. Bacon had not been in good health and suffered with pains in her head.

Mrs. Bacon is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Ida Kirwin of Peoria, Ills., and two sisters, Mrs. Laura A. Tibbett of Tampa and Mrs. Ettie Brothers of West Salem, O.

der, my representative in France, Col. Barker, cabled asking that our forces there be increased to at least 1,000 workers. I had already advised the government that it was my purpose to place 750 in the field. However, Col. Barker's call for 1,000 must have our most sympathetic consideration, and we shall leave no stone unturned in our efforts to meet the claim."

Commander Booth also states that the class of people needed for this work must be healthy and strong, as it would be absolutely useless to consider physical or nervous weaklings. There is hardness to endure and dangers to brave that require strength of body and nerve. Every applicant must be of unquestioned loyalty. They must be enthusiastic in their support of the moral aims of this war, as stated by the president. And last but by no means least they must be possessed of a true Christian character and willing to endure hardness as a good soldiers of Jesus Chrit.

Preliminary application blank for this work can be had by applying to Commandant James Yates, No. 1102 Tampa street, city, or by writing direct to Commander Miss Booth, No. 124 West Fourteenth street, New York city.

Navy 'Secret' On Anti-Sub Weapon Finally Leaks Out

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—(Chicago Tribune Press Service)—The Navy's long-concealed secret of a new atomic anti-submarine weapon "Lulu" leaked out today. Defense security officials reportedly had not cleared any public announcement about it at this time.

Vice Adm. William V. Davis, deputy chief of naval air operations, told a luncheon of the Aviation Writers Association, in reply to questions about "Lulu," that it was an atomic depth charge that could destroy submarines miles away from the explosion.

Davis' offhand reference to "Lulu" during a discussion of Navy anti-submarine weapons was the first revelation of its existence. Newspapermen have been trying to run down such a weapon since Navy Secretary Thomas hinted at such an atomic depth charge last Spring before the Senate armed services subcommittee investigation of air power.

Davis did not further describe Lulu, but he said it was not the atomic underwater "device" exploded by the Atomic Energy Commission in a test off the Pacific Coast in the Spring of 1955.

10-Year-Old Boy Dies In Hospital

Mrs. Wagner, Teacher 35 Years, Dies

Mrs. Wagner

Mrs. Lura Mead Wagner, a teacher in Hillsborough schools for 35 years who numbered among her pupils some of the outstanding men this area of the state has produced, died Wednesday night at a Tampa hospital.

Mrs. Wagner lived from the time she was three years old until her death at the age of 83, in the house her family built in Limona on Mead Ave., a street named for her mother.

The Limona community itself was founded by her great uncle, Judge J. G. Knapp, who served as territorial judge of Mexico under Abraham Lincoln. Mrs. Wagner still had in her possession the papers President Lincoln issued to Judge Knapp at the time of his appointment.

D. B. McKay, Hillsborough County historian recalls that he often was called on to set the difficult-to-read articles Judge Knapp wrote by hand for The Tribune in the days when Knapp was a local authority on citrus problems.

Home Began As Cabin

The Mead residence on Mead Ave. began its life as a two-room log house, and it was to this cabin that Mrs. Wagner moved as a child from Breeseport, N. Y., a town named for her mother's family and in which Mrs. Wagner was born.

The Limona landmark in which Mrs. Wagner made her home for 80 years became, through gradual stages of growth, one of the big two-story houses of the community, but its log cabin nucleus remains intact.

Mrs. Wagner taught in various Hillsborough schools and was an accounting instructor at the old Hatton Business College, now Tampa Business College. Among her pupils were many of Tampa's leading accountants, and two men distinguished for their military careers, Gen. James Van Fleet, of Bartow, and Frank Falsone, a past president of American Legion of Florida.

Married At 62

Mrs. Wagner did not marry until she was 62 years old, when she became the wife of the late Frank Wagner, a former Tennessean.

Her mother, Mrs. Georgia Breese Mead, was postmistress at Limona for many years.

The body will lie in state at Limona Evangelical United Brethren Church from 12:30 o'clock tomorrow until 2, the hour of the funeral, when the casket will be closed. The Rev. C. W. A. Brodemier will officiate, and F. T. Blount Funeral directors will be in charge of the services. Active pallbearers will be D. G. Mook, Claude Garner, Charles Goodwin, N. M. Shafer, Clarence White and Cliff Nevill.

Mrs. Wagner is survived by two step-children, Ross Wagner, of Texas, and Mrs. Ruth Wagner Sanborn, of Tampa.

Tennessee Farmhand Killed By Auto Near Plant City

PLANT CITY, Oct. 25—(Special)—A Tennessee farmhand was killed near here tonight seconds after he walked from a roadside diner where he had attempted to beg food.

Police reported Frank Edward Stilwill, 60, of Ashland City, Tenn., died instantly when hit by a car one-quarter mile west of here on Route 92. He was identified by papers carried in an otherwise-empty wallet.

Officers said Charles Lewis Smith, 19, of Plant City, told how he attempted to pass two cars traveling in front of him, and how, when he pulled back into his lane of traffic, Stilwill stood in the center of the pavement. Smith was released without charge.
